San Francisco Tailoring ESTABLISHMENT.

Merchant Tailoring House

New Mexico.—We have dates to May 6th from the Santa Fe Gazette. The convention, which was called to meet on the 3rd April, failed to assemble for want of a quorum. The election for delegates to the convention, at present, thirty-three is reported, until the 22 inst., when a quorum will appear; they went home and the convention was not held. The Gazette says the people do not want a State Government, and is elated because the convention failed to organize. Rich silver ore has been found in the Santa Fe mountains. The delegate in Congress does not appear to suit the Gazette, if we may judge by the tone of an editorial article therein. General Carleton has been mustered out of the volunteer service. He has been Breveted Brigadier General in the Regular Army. The authorities of San Miguel county have been empowered by the Governor to raise one hundred and fifty men to pursue and chastise Indians, who are committing depredations in that country. The mail contracts have been let—from Lawrence to Santa Fe, tri-weekly $47,000—to Franklin, tri-weekly, $18,000. It is rumored the editor of the New Mexican Press is to be appointed Judge of the 2d Judicial District. What a lucky fellow! Col. Brown, formerly of the 1st Cala. Cavalry, has been appointed Sutler for Fort Sumner. The 115th Colored Infantry is ordered to Santa Fe and vicinity.

Now, therefore, I, HUGH McCULLOCH, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the said FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF SALT LAKE is authorized to commence the business of Banking as provided in the said Act.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 1, 1866.

A MINERS' CONVENTION.

We have been thinking for a considerable time, in view of the manifest ignorance of the wants of the great West, especially of the mining regions, prevailing at the national capital, that some decisive steps should be taken to inaugurate and press upon the attention of Congress some sound policy looking to the promotion of the mutual interests of all the vast interior Territories and Pacific States. There are many reasons why this should be done without delay. As matters now stand, the only avennes through which we can make ourselves heard in the legislative halls of the nation are by means of the representatives of California, Nevada and Oregon. They alone of all the communities thronging these vast interior regions of our country, have a voice in the national councils. The rest must needs be content with a secondary advocacy. Hence our demands are unheeded or are drowned in the clamor of sections more powerfully represented.

Now it is for our manifest interest to unite on some definite and well digested plan of action whereby we may concentrate the scattered influence now wasted in desultory attempts, and, directing it resolutely to accomplish a given object of mutual benefit, make its force felt and finally effective. By united effort alone can we hope to draw the requisite attention to our demands which shall secure intelligent legislation suited to, and commensurate with, our mutual needs.

There is a very evident itching with many men of influence in Congressional circles to draw a direct revenue from the specie-producing States and Territories, by taxation of the mines. All who are familiar with mining affairs know full well that such schemes are equally unjust as impracticable and must end in failure. But men who have spent years in discovering and developing mines, and there are many thousands of such, cannot afford to have newly-fledged political financiers experiment too liberally at their expense. The effect of putting their finely spun theories into practice must prove ruinous to a large and enterprising class—the miners themselves. Necessarily resulting therefrom would ensue the depression of all dependent interests, and, having completely paralyzed the energies of mining enterprise, any mere taxation schemes would themselves ultimately come to nought.

We have not only to prevent such a consummation, but to go farther and ask a generous encouragement, the conferring of acquired rights now held in abeyance, the adoption of a wisely liberal policy looking to the establishment of lines of communication less expensive and more expeditious than the tedious means now of necessity employed, and finally, but most strenuously, have we to insist, as a condition precedent, on a far more perfect system of protection to pioneers from Indian barbarities than has hitherto been afforded by the Government. All this, and more, it is but right that we should ask as it is no less the interest of the national authorities to confer.

Our country is vast. Its capital is located on the shores of the Atlantic, while the streams that thrid these mountain solitudes are at last mingled with the waters of the western ocean. Our wants differ essentially, in the nature of things, from those of eastern communities, where the interests of agriculture, manufactures and commerce are the controling influences. The resources and the peculiar requirements of these remote regions which we inhabit are comparatively little understood elsewhere. It is to enlighten the nation upon these points, to present our claims so continually and with such force as to make them effective that we should unite and give our efforts a common direction.

The plan we propose, with this end in view, is, to call a convention, composed of delegates from all the States and Territories west of the Missouri river, more especially from the mining regions, to meet at some central point, say Salt Lake City, there to confer upon the necessary means, and, to devise some plan of united action, shape some policy mutually satisfactory, by which, if at all, our purpose may be attained. The simple fact of calling a convention of such proportions and for such a purpose will attract the attention of Congress and go far towards accomplishing the desired result. Let such delegates—men of practical intelligence—be selected by the various legislative assemblies, their number proportioned to the population, and of influence commensurate with the interests represented. Let them be thoroughly instructed as to the objects of assembling, the main idea—unity of action—being essential in view. To this all other questions of local interest and minor importance should yield precedence. A prevailing policy must thus be inaugurated which would certainly be most powerful in its influence, and to this end the several representatives, [illegible] proportionately by the respective [illegible] interests.

We throw this suggestion abroad and [illegible] in the press throughout the Territories and [illegible] States until carried into effect. If it be a matter of importance that our wants be made known, then it is equally imperative that adequate means be employed to that end. We can think of nothing so practical and promising of good results as the calling of a convention for that purpose.

AFFAIRS IN UTAH.

The following correspondence is taken from the columns of the Missouri Republican, of May 14th, 1866. We republish it for the information of our readers:

GEN. SHERMAN TO BRIGHAM YOUNG.

To Brigham Young:

SIR.—A telegram comes to me from responsible officers that four men, styled "Gentiles," have been murdered by Mormons, and that there is apprehension of further danger from this class. By Gentiles I understand American citizens not of your religious belief. I am bound to give protection to all citizens, regardless of religious faith, and shall do so. These murderers must be punished, and if your people resort to measures of intimidation, those must cease. All of our people must have equal rights within the limits of our national domain. I know little or nothing of the causes of local trouble in Utah, but it is well for you to know that our country is now full of tried and experienced soldiers who would be pleased at a fair opportunity to avenge any wrongs you may commit against any of our citizens, even in that remote region. I will soon have regular troops in Utah, and on the road leading there, when I hope we shall receive reports on which to base accurate opinions; and I send you this message not as a threat, but as a caution that a sensible man should heed.

W. T. SHERMAN,
Maj. Gen. Commanding Department.

BRIGHAM YOUNG TO GEN. SHERMAN.

Great Salt Lake City,
April 11, '66.

Maj. Gen. W. T. Sherman, St. Louis:

SIR—Your telegram of yesterday is at hand, and contents duly considered. The reports that have reached you are not reliable, satisfactory evidence of which I will telegraph you as soon as the testimony of reliable gentlemen, not Mormons, can be had, say within twenty-four hours.

B. YOUNG.

GREAT SALT LAKE CITY,
April 12, 1865.

Maj. Gen. W. T. SHERMAN:

Sir—I am under many obligations to you for your kindness in telegraphing the reported reports which have reached you from this place, as it affords me opportunity of stating facts.

As much as we can learn there have been telegrams sent from here to the East which have not been reliable. Your telegram gives us some idea of their purport. There have been no such assassinations as alluded to in your dispatch. On March 17th a soldier shot a gentleman named Mayfield, and a Mr. Brassfield came home and seduced a Mormon's wife, and was shot on the street by some unknown person; but neither I, nor the community at large, knew any more about it than an inhabitant of St. Louis. Citizens who are out of our faith do not suffer from intimidation here. In no other community could men pursue the course many do here without experiencing the vengeance of a vigilance committee. The outrageous slanders they have circulated against us would have provoked such an outbreak elsewhere.

There are a few speculators here who are anxious to make it appear that American citizens' lives are in danger through religious fanaticism, hoping thereby to have troops sent here to make money out of contracts. Gentiles' lives are as safe here as Mormons', and acts of violence occur more rarely in this city than any other of its size in any of the new States or Territories.

B. YOUNG.

CITIZENS OF UTAH TO GEN. SHERMAN.

Maj Gen SHERMAN:

Sir—We, the undersigned residents of Great Salt Lake City, and not members of the Mormon Church, have read the above telegram of Mr. Young, and freely certify that we fully believe that citizens of every class, who simply attend to their own business, are as free from intimidation and as fully respected in their rights in this city as in any part of the United States.

GEN. SHERMAN TO BRIGHAM YOUNG.

BRIGHAM YOUNG:

Sir—Your dispatch is received, and I am much gratified at its substance and spirit.

W. T. SHERMAN,
Maj. Gen. Com'dg Department.

From California.

[From the Enterprise.]

San Francisco, May 25.

Queen Victoria's birthday was celebrated yesterday by the British residents in a grand display of bunting and a dinner at Congress Hall, at which speeches, toasts and wine were the order.

William G. Ross, who was shot by Charley Duane, died at St. Mary's Hospital at half past 1 o'clock this afternoon. He commenced failing at 11 o'clock, when his lower extremities were cold and pulsation had nearly ceased. Yesterday, while sensible, his deposition in regard to the shooting was taken by a Notary. He said he did not see Duane at all and had made no threats against Duane's life; but, on the contrary, had sedulously avoided him. The Coroner will probably hold an inquest on Monday, and Duane will have an examination soon after. Public opinion is still strongly against Duane.

J. S. Lang was arrested last evening, on the complaint of R. G. Wood, on the charge of obtaining money by false pretense, in making false representations regarding the business of the Howard street brewery, through which Wood was induced to purchase a third interest.

A fire broke out about two o'clock this morning in the France-American Company's salesroom, on Sansom street, through which considerable damage was affected by water. It was supposed to have been the work of incendiaries, as a false alarm was struck from another part of the city at the same moment.

HELENA, MONTANA, [illegible]—Recent reports inform us that trade is looking up, and times are fast improving in the Metropolis of Montana. Stone storages, fire-proof warerooms, and nice new stores are the order of the day. Among the number may be noted those of Mr. Jas. M. Vivion, Tutt & Bonnell, McCormick & Ohle, Higgins & Carpenter, Murphy & Stephenson, Gastos, Simpson & Co., Clayton & Hale, and other widely known establishments. Messrs. Gooding & Gray are running their new mammoth sale-stable with marked success. Germain is catering to his boarders at the International with his wonted suavity and splendid "grub." The handsome banking offices of Messrs. Allen & Millard and of L. H. Hershfield (the latter a beauty,) are buying gold dust and dealing in exchange ad infinitum. Lewis, Hale & Co. are getting up the choicest gems of manufactured jewelry, adjoining the great western book and newspaper depot of our worthy friend and Agent, L. W. Stickney. Enterprise and improvement are synonymous with most of the Montana merchants, and with none more marked than the house of Jas. M. Vivion, whose "right-hand bowers" are no less than our gracious friends, Mr. G. B. Thomas and W. M. Thomas his brother. The latter genial gentleman just passed through here lately from his late home, St. Louis, and will be found henceforth at the aforesaid house in Helena. While here en route, he informed us that their house is having an immense stock of groceries and miners' supplies on the boats for their Helena establishment, and that they have opened a commodious warehouse at their favorite entreport, Kerchival City, at the mouth of the Muscle Shell, where he believes the biggest share of the steamboat freight shall be reshipped from there to Helena. Be this as it may, a forwarding house at such a point is pretty sure of being a success. By the way, they think it not at all improbable that much freight for Utah soon shall be received on the boats and forwarded by teams to this City of the Saints, cheaper than as of old by long line overland. Speaking of Helena "hosses," we see that the Radiator still progresses, and is bound to remain a favorite paper while friend Favorite runs it. Potter's Postoffice and Oliver & Co's Cayuse cars are literally "coining money" from the daily advent of immigrants by the thousand.

From the East.

Gen. Santa Anna arrived at New York on the 11th ult. on the steamer Georgia....The iron-moulders' strike in Troy, N. Y., which commenced some six weeks since, is now at an end....Gen. Butler, in the Music Hall at Boston, on the 11th, expounded his scheme of reconstruction to an immense audience. In his remarks he deprecated the restoration policy of the President and the committee alike as unsatisfactory....The New York Board of Health have before them a proposition to divide the city into six hospital districts, in which, when epidemics occur, there shall be established as many hospitals as the exigencies may require. The matter of allowing offal and carcasses of dead animals to be thrown overboard and float to and lodge on Long Island, is under discussion.... The master shipbuilders of New York have offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the parties who have assaulted or may assault men who have gone to work. The strike of the carpenters, joiners and caulkers continues... The contract for constructing the Gettysburg monument has been awarded to the designer, James G. Battersen, of Hartford—cost $50,000.... Gens. Steedman and Fullerton, the Commissioners appointed to investigate the working of the Freedmen's Bureau through the Southern States, have made a report of their observations in Virginia and North Carolina. They sustain the charges which have been freely made against the agents, of being interested in speculations, &c, and recommend the removal of the present officers of the Bureau from those States, and the transfer of the duties to the officers commanding the troops; that, as the agents have but little to do, all cases for trial or adjustment have been turned over to the civil courts.

MAJOR GENERAL G. M. DODGE.—We learn from the Council Bluffs Nonpareil that Gen. Dodge, who has sent his resignation to the War Department, has been tendered the position of Chief Engineer of the Union Pacific Railroad, with a salary of eight thousand dollars per annum, which he will probably accept as soon as the War Office shall accept his resignation.

The Nonpareil says: "Any other man would think it necessary to devote a few months to resting, after a five years' campaign, before entering again upon active duties; but it is constitutionally impossible for the General to remain inactive, and we venture to predict that he will be running the great railroad in less than a week after his resignation is accepted."

THE NEW SENATOR.—The Hon. Orris S. Ferry, who has just been selected by the Republican-Unionists of Connecticut for a U. S Senator for six years from the 4th of next March, is a citizen of Fairfield county—a Whig in other years, but a zealous and advanced Republican since there was a Republican party. He has been thrice its candidate for Congress in the District composed of Fairfield and Litchfield counties, and is an able, earnest and effective champion of the principles sustained by Connecticut in her late election, and will prove an admirable Senator.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Daily Union Vedette

Local and Miscellaneous.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its immense circulation in every county, camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (in which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the mails reach) makes it the most desirable medium for advertising in these four central Territories.

Rose Bonner in New York.

Idaho paid $55,000 in 1865 for Internal Revenue tax. The amount will more than double this year.

PROBST, the monster murderer, has gained twenty pounds in weight since his arrest.

ARTEMUS Ward is at home in Waterford, Me., and sails for Liverpool June 24. He returns to the Egotistical Mormons.

A NEW Democratic paper is to be started soon at Boise City, by Pat Malone, former editor of the Oregon Statesman.

SOMETHING NEW IN UTAH.—That peculiar ceremony called circumcision was performed on a Hebrew child, a couple of weeks old, in this city yesterday, for the first time in this territory of the Mormons.

JUDGE Abell, of the First District Court, in New Orleans, has decided the Civil Rights bill to be unconstitutional and not binding on the Court. He argues that the present Congress is unconstitutionally constituted.

GEN. SHERIDAN has arrived from Texas. The regular infantry is being distributed through that State under the direction of Gen. Heintzelman. Gov. Hamilton has ordered a State election to be held under the new Constitution on the 25th of June next.

MARRIED.—The mail informs us of the recent marriage of Col. Briggs, formerly of this District, to a Miss Julia R. Peirce, away back east in "America." Success to you, Colonel, and may your cruise across the sea of life be hailed by lots of little Briggs!

NEW MEXICO.—Major and Brevet Brig. General Carleton, U. S. A., has been, by order of General Grant, retained in command of New Mexico. A deserved compliment.... The Gazette claims that New Mexico is one of the richest mineral territories in the United States.

REV. Edward Kelly will preach, next Sunday, in Independence Hall at 11 A. M., and at 7.30 o'clock on Sunday evening he will lecture on "Transubstantiation" or the "Real presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist." Citizens in general are cordially invited to attend. The Rev. Father will also officiate at Camp Douglas on Sunday at 6.45 A. M.

OFF FOR MONTANA.—J. T. Lyne, the able tragedian, took his departure for the north, by yesterday's coach, to fill engagements at Virginia and Helena.—He has an old-time, thorough reputation for respectability and real merit as an artiste, which, we hope, will meet with high and hearty favor from the theatre goers through the mines.

PERSONAL.—Our enterprising friend, Walter C. Hopkins, of Bannack City, arrived here yesterday from the East, en route to his field of mining operations in Montana. He reports a real good feeling manifesting in New York towards Montana's mines. Mr. H. is operating for the N. Y. and Montana, and the McLean Mining companies, on the Dacotah and Huron lodes, and has a fine supply of machinery on the road.

OREGON ITEMS.—Business in Portland is unusually dull....The Oregon city paper mill will be in operation this coming fall....Generals Halleck and Steele are about starting on an inspection tour....On the 9th inst. Indians made a raid upon the ranche of Mr. Cozad, in the Canyon city road, and stole $1,000 worth of fine American mares.... The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows convened at the Dalles on the 16th.

California Items.

Nevada and Placer counties are quarreling about their boundary line.... The Sacramento teamsters had a huge procession on the 19th inst. The property in the line was worth $250,000.... The haying harvest is in full blast in Sacramento Valley....Two persons recently caught 923 brook trout, in two days, in Santa Cruz county....The Lincoln and Marysville railroad is completed to a distance less than three miles from Bear River....A shark, seven feet long, was recently caught near Monterey.

FROM THE RIVER.—The cars are running between Leavenworth and Topeka. ....T. C. Sears has retired from the editorial management of the Leavenworth Conservative.....Governor Mitchell and Judge Slough, of New Mexico, are in Leavenworth.....Col. Chivington, of Colorado, preached in the Leavenworth Methodist Church on the 13th ult.....D. S. McIntosh has been elected Mayor of Lecompton, Kansas.....Leavenworth has a new Postoffice.....The forts, barracks and other war relics in and about St. Louis, are fast disappearing under the builder's ruthless hand, and more substantial structures are being erected in their rules.

Gen. CHAMBERLAIN is likely to receive the Republican nomination for Governor of Maine. He is still suffering from wounds received in service.

REBEL COMMANDERS.—The greatest of the Confederate Generals is now a teacher of mathematics in an Academy.—Sherman's great antagonists are in the express and railroad business. The once dreaded Beauregard will sell you a ticket from New Orleans to Jackson, and if you want to send a couple of bales to a friend in Richmond, Joe Johnston, once commander of great armies, will carry them. The man whose works Grant moved upon at Donelson edits an indifferent paper in New Orleans, while the commander of the rebel cavalry at Corinth is his local reporter. Marshall practices law in New Orleans; Forrest is running a saw-mill; Dick Taylor is now having a good time in New York; Roger A. Pryor is a daily practitioner at our courts; and so with the rest of this bold, vindictive and ambitious race of men.

COLORADO NEWS.—We clip the following items from our exchanges: A steam saw mill has been taken into the Georgetown silver mining district....A lodge of Good Templars has been organized in Golden city....The theatrical season closed in Denver on the 19th inst., and Waldron and the Leslies have gone to Central....The Coal and Iron property," embracing 900 acres of land near Golden city, has been sold to a Boston company....A great many new buildings are in process of erection in Denver....The Lyon process appears to have firmly established itself in the favor of mill men....With the exception of the Gazette, all the Colorado papers are opposing President Johnson and his policy.

A YOUNG AFRICAN.—The Carson State Journal relates the following:

We have a young American citizen of African descent, in Carson, who occasionally exhibits some rather amusing freaks. The other day, Jim Sturtevant drove up to the Sazerac Saloon, and requested him to hold his horse for a moment, while he was absent. When he returned he offered darkey a half dollar, which, with an air of offended dignity, Cuffee refused to accept, saying, "I se a free culiud citizen now, and I don't take no fo' bits for holdin' nobody's hosses." A few days since, a gentleman called on him to black his boots, for which service he offered him two short bits, that being all the change he happened to have at the time. The boy took the money and indignantly threw it into the street. "Bet yer life," said he, "yo don't play no short bits on dis child; I'se a citizen ob de United States, and I'll hab my rights or nuffin—dat's what's de matter."
